

CHILD PROTECTION POLICY

- WARWICK HOTEL ANKARA is committed to doing its part to protect children.

Children's rights as declared by UNICEF, especially below:

We support the stated.

- Every child should be protected from exploitation or abuse at the hands of adults.

to rest and play to ensure that he has time free from responsibilities

Providing extra care, protection and facilities is supported.

- Every child has access to health care, clean water, to be as healthy as possible.

The right to nutritious food and a safe environment is supported.

- To fully develop each child's personality, talents and skills.

the right to education is supported.

- All children regardless of their ethnicity, gender, beliefs, abilities or family background have the same rights regardless of their age. Yet every day, children, just like adults,

They may face discrimination for various reasons. All kinds of discrimination is rejected.

- Every child has the right to speak on matters that affect him/her, depending on his/her age and maturity.

and his opinions are taken seriously.

- All forms of child abuse, including sexual abuse, are prohibited within hotel grounds.

General manager