

Local Historical, Archaeological, Cultural and Spiritual Symbolic Buildings and Useful Information for Your Visits to Places

- Introduce our guests and staff to the true essence of the country they visit.

experience and be completely positive for both visitors and hosts.

with local communities, away from the traditional tourist circuit, to create experiences

We are happy to have the opportunity to live and work together.

- Please use trash cans, do not smoke, do not talk loudly, do not use this if you feel drunk.

Do not visit places and do not enter local historical, archaeological, cultural and spiritually significant buildings and Follow other written rules during your visits to places.

- Historical/archaeological artifacts cannot be sold, exchanged or sold except as permitted by law.

not exhibited.

- Our voluntary code of conduct for visits to culturally and historically sensitive sites may include established guidelines.

- Please ask our guest relations department for more specific information about the place you plan to visit.

ask for information.

- Voluntary visits to local culturally/historically significant sites wherever possible we ensure inclusion in our programs.

- You should be careful about the communication you establish with children and not contact any child.

You should not give money to any child who asks for it.